This is one like Hayman Joyce already on the web site. It sits on the home page and recurs on every page through out the site. It lends itself to a Loggo style block which acts as a hyperlink to your own site. Alternatively it can link to a pdf or anything else held on our site in the back ground.

The cost for this is £150 PA

This would sit purely in the Adverts section of the site:
It can contain lineage a single pic and a hyperlink again to your site or other back ground pages.

£7.50 per month or £30 for 6 months or £50 for a year.

Feel free to email or ring me if you want to discuss anything or if you want to go ahead can you let me have a cheque and email one photo or Loggo and your lineage including links?
